Declaration

Future Car was launched by Genius Toy Taiwan Co., Ltd. in own brand Gigo in 2013. The Apple upgrade of iOS9 in 2015 has caused malfunction of Future Car APP that several coding systems need modifications as to adapt to iOS9, including blue-tooth application, font compatibility and AR engine remodeling. Due to the AR engine supplier, MetaioAR, stopped technical supporting to all clients, Gigo was unable to deliver a corresponding upgrade.

With regret, Future Car was thus discontinued, but it never stops Gigo's sense of mission to bring the best user experience that we've been looking for fitting outsource to make the corresponding upgrade feasible. To our delight, the newly delivered Future Car APP has been tested successfully and is now available in Apple Store. Please follow the update notice and install the new APP accordingly, so as to enjoy Future Car APP, driving in own created AR city again.

Kindly be reminded that no further upgrade or maintenance service will be provided after iOS9 by reason of Future Car discontinuity since 2015. In addition, Future Car APP may not fulfill fitting size to the screen of Apple iPhone6 and iPhone6 Plus which were launched after 2015 with larger screens. We suggest using iPad instead to have the best user experience.

We appreciate your continuous support that inspires the whole Gigo team to keep innovative thinking and bring out the best service to you!

Sincerely,
